

OFF WITH A ROAR!

The Republican Party's 1952 presidential campaign got off to a rousing start in Philadelphia last Thursday.

With an estimated half million persons battling for the privilege of seeing and hearing General Eisenhower in person during the course of a busy day's parades, public appearances and mass-meetings, and with untold millions more looking in through television, the nominee got such a sendoff as no other candidate for years has enjoyed.

Philadelphia and Pennsylvania both have every right to be proud of the tumultuous launching given to this year's do-or-die drive to bring the Republican Party back to the national leadership it so long enjoyed, but has failed to regain during the past twenty years.

The interior of Convention Hall was jammed to the rafters with upwards of 20,000 individuals, while approximately twice as many, after trying in vain to push in also, listened to the program over the loudspeaker from the plaza and streets.

There is an old saying to the effect that "nothing succeeds like success," and nowhere is this more true than in politics. Nothing inspires confidence like auspicious weather and enthusiastic crowds, and the Philadelphia occasion provided both—a marvelous fall day, and a magnificent throng of eager, demonstrative men and women.

As General Eisenhower remarked at one point in his series of talks, such demonstrations do not happen by accident, and the Philadelphia rally was no exception to this rule.

It was the product of careful planning, much hard effort, and splendid teamwork by all levels of the Republican Party organization cooperating with the head of the Philadelphia Republicans, City Chairman William J. Hamilton, Jr., the man actually in charge.

Visible in the finished results was the handiwork of the entire ward and precinct organization in Philadelphia, of many county committees (including Bucks), of the state administration under Governor John S. Fine, of the Republican State Committee under Senator M. Harvey Taylor, and of the Republican National Committee under its new chairman, Arthur E. Summerfield.

This is the material out of which successful campaigns are made. "Groundswells" and inexperienced groups of amateurs may win the easy ones—but the tough ones are captured as the result of dogged, intelligent teamwork of political organization from the focus-point of the candidates right down through the ranks to the humblest precinct worker and doorbell-puller.

Make no mistake about it—the fact that room for so many ardent but differing Republicans could be found in this single enterprise is perhaps the most cheering phase of the entire occurrence.

It was teamwork which produced the inspiring spectacle, colorful, gaudy and appealing, which cannot fail to strike dismay into the New Deal forces that for so many years have seemed to consider huge demonstrations and theatrical demonstrations their own specialty.

In mentioning those who deserve a special word of commendation for their part in the highly successful affair it is interesting to note that the actual producing and directing of the spectacle was in the hands of a Pennsylvania Republican well-known through the state—Col. LeRoy V. Greene, former publicity director of the Republican State Committee and now a special assistant on the staff of National Chairman Summerfield, who was loaned to the Republican City Committee for the occasion.

P. R. R. Announces Work On Road Leading to Bridge Will Get Under Way

EDDINGTON, Sept. 6—Work is to get underway on Monday, according to announcement by officials of the Penna. Railroad, on the surfacing of the approaches to the bridge spanning the railroad here. The bridge carries route 09003 across the tracks at the site of the Eddington passenger station.

"The bridge will be open to the public within 10 days to two weeks after work gets underway," states a railroad representative.

The bridge which was damaged by fire on July 26, 1948, has been closed to the public ever since.

In the middle of last June a spokesman for the P. R. R. said that a strike on the part of paving machine operators was the cause of the delay. The strike was in effect for several months. At the same time it was stated that the bridge was to be opened to pedestrian traffic about June 25th.

For a long time firemen of the area urged that the bridge and approaches be pushed to completion as a safety measure in fire protection.

Husband Given Chance To Win Wife's Love Back

Judge Hiram H. Keller Suspends Sentence on Frank Briegel, But He Pays Costs

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 6—A chance to win back the love of his wife who had him arrested for giving her a black eye and punching her July 12, was given Frank G. Briegel, Jr., 25, Langhorne.

The mother of two small children, three years old and nine months old, Mrs. Ruth Briegel, 22, Parkland the prosecutrix, said she had her husband arrested twice before for beating her up. She blamed the trouble on too much drinking.

President Judge Keller suspended sentence on the assault and battery charge but directed that Briegel pay the costs of prosecution and give at least half of his $50 a week take-home pay to his wife and two children. He was placed on probation for one year and warned about drinking and beating his wife.

Mrs. Briegel astonished the Court when she replied that she did not care if her husband was sent to jail. "Have you no respect for the two children you have if their father's reputation is ruined by having him to go to jail?" Judge Keller asked her.

Judge Edward G. Biester heard the following cases:

Kenneth Bowen, Morrisville, RD 1, charge of assault and battery preferred by his wife on Aug. 2 withdrawn and the defendant was ordered to pay the costs. It grew out of a marital mix-up between two married men and a married woman.

P. R. R. To Drop 2 Trains Here After Sept. 27th

East Bound Train at 12.47 and West Bound Train at 12.19 to Be Discontinued

Bristol which for some time has only been a "whistle stop" on the Pennsylvania Railroad, with the passing of daylight saving time, will become only a "toot" stop.

There will, after Sept. 27th, be a period of six hours during the day-time between trains from Bristol to Philadelphia; and 6½ hours between trains from Bristol to Trenton, N. J.

The two trains are to be discontinued entirely, according to announcement made today by officials of the P.R.R.

The west-bound train (to Philadelphia) which is being discontinued is the one which stops here at 12.19 daylight saving time. The east-bound train to Trenton to be taken off is the one halting now at Bristol at 12.47, daylight saving time.

There will be no west-bound trains stopping at Bristol from 10.14 a. m., until 4.19 p. m.; and no east-bound trains between 9.05 a. m., and 3.38 p. m.

These two trains are to be completely withdrawn with the change to standard time on the early morning of Sunday, Sept. 28th, it is stated.

The reason advanced by railroad officials for withdrawing these trains (one from Trenton to Phila., the other from Philadelphia to New York) is "insufficient patronage and continued high cost of train operation."

Court Warns Driver; Says He is Example Of A Hot-Rodder

Morton L. Dyer, Jr., 23, of Newportville, is Sentenced To Pay $150 Fine, Costs

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 6—A warning was given Morton L. Dyer, Jr., 23, Newportville, by Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite that he was an example of hot-rodgers in Bucks County and the Court intends to get rid of them. Dyer pleaded guilty to hit and run driving and was sentenced to pay a $150 fine and the costs of prosecution.

Chief of Police George H. Rentz, Bensalem twp., arrested the defendant May 11 after his car collided with a car driven by Edward J. Wurster, Newportville, and damaged it to the extent of $97.52.

The defendant, who bore an excellent reputation and had three character witnesses and had never been in any serious trouble except for speeding in 1947, could give no satisfactory explanation for his conduct.

The Wurster car was stopping for a stop-traffic sign when the defendant's car collided with it. The Grand Jury ignored a count of turning off lights to avoid identification, but held him on two other counts, failure to stop at the scene of an accident and submit identity.

"Your story certainly does not satisfy the Court," said Judge Satterthwaite. The defendant had not been drinking before the roadside and does not drink, it was testified.

His father is blind and his mother partially blind.

"Only your friends' testimony concerning your good reputation and the fact that you have to support your blind and aged parents prevents you from going to jail," said Judge Satterthwaite who suspended sentence on the second of the two charges which involves failure to submit identity.

Bus-Truck Crash Results In Injury For 25 to 30

BORDENTOWN, N. J., Sept. 6—A Penna. Greyhound bus today plowed into the rear of a ten-wheel truck on the New Jersey State Turnpike, near here, injuring at least 25 to 30 persons.

The driver was injured seriously but the extent of the injuries of the others could not be learned immediately.

A half dozen ambulances rushed the victims from the scene of the accident, five miles south of Bordentown, to hospitals in Trenton, Mount Holly and Riverside.

Burlington Co. Hospital at Mount Holly said it was overcrowded with victims and could accept no more patients.

Both the bus, a New York-to-Washington express, and the truck which was loaded with onions, were heading south when the accident occurred at 1:20 a. m.

The truck ran off the road and turned over on its side, scattering onions all over the field. The bus, its front stove in an partly detached, veered to the right and went bouncing into the field.

Most of the passengers were trapped and had to be lifted through emergency exits and through the smashed front of the bus. Fortunately there was no fire.

Parts of the bus front were impacted in the rear of the truck, including the front door which proclaimed in large letters the warning "Watch Your Step."

The collision occurred less than 500 feet from the spot in the north-bound lane where five Marines met death during the Christmas holiday week-end when their car slammed into the rear of a trailer truck.

"The bridge will be open to the public within 10 days to two weeks after work gets underway," states a railroad representative.

The bridge which was damaged by fire on July 26, 1948, has been closed to the public ever since.

In the middle of last June a spokesman for the P. R. R. said that a strike on the part of paving machine operators was the cause of the delay. The strike was in effect for several months. At the same time it was stated that the bridge was to be opened to pedestrian traffic about June 25th.

For a long time firemen of the area urged that the bridge and approaches be pushed to completion as a safety measure in fire protection.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Although the Communist enemy in Korea now has more than a million men under arms, it is unlikely that he would risk a major offensive because the United Nations armies are so strongly entrenched General Van Fleet declared.

Egyptian Premier Aly Maher strengthened and broadened his Cabinet by reshuffling it, retaining for himself the key Ministries of Foreign Affairs, Interior, War and Navy.

Washington, London and Paris asked Moscow to a four-power meeting to consider anew an Austrian treaty. Moscow was expected to reject the plan because of stipulations contained in the Allied proposal.

The Soviet delegate to the United Nations, Jacob A. Malik, vigorously criticized both the Republican and Democratic nominees for President and said that United States political leaders would be willing to sign a pact with the "devil himself." He charged that no "sane" person could believe these men wanted peace, and added that General Eisenhower's aim was war against the Soviet Union.

The People's Parliament of East Germany named a five-man delegation to try to persuade the Bonn regime to accept the unification procedure outlined in the latest Soviet proposal on Germany's unification. East Berlin shops owned by West Berliners were seized. United States authorities have asked David Lillenthal to take an important role on a technical assistance team of the Mutual Security Agency to plan a long-term recovery program for the western section of Berlin.

Gen. Carlos Ibanez, the Nationalist candidate, is expected to be named the winner in Chile's Presidential election.

The seventh annual report by the World Bank showed that it had more than doubled during the last fiscal year the total funds expended for industrial and agricultural development projects throughout the world. In the same period the bank approved nineteen loans aggregating $298,600,000 to sixteen countries.

President Truman named Henry H. Fowler as Director of Defense Mobilization and urged the country not to allow any "letdown in our national effort" to attain the goals of "peace and security for America and the free world."

Work on the Fitch school is expected to start soon, say school officials. It will include 20 classrooms, cafeteria, auditorium, teachers' rooms, etc. In the meantime pupils will attend sessions at the former Wistar Institute buildings at Emille.

Mrs. Melda C. Snyder Replaces Dr. Bowen Who Is On Leave of Absence

Mrs. Melda C. Snyder has just been appointed acting Assistant County Superintendent of Schools replacing Dr. Genevieve Bowen who is away on a year's leave of absence to Cuzco, Peru. H. Franklin Moore, president of the Bucks County Board of School Directors, announced.

Dr. Bowen is working in connection with the U. S. Point Four Program in rendering technical assistance to Peru's educational authorities. At the end of the past war Dr. Bowen spent three months in Korea and Japan in a consultative capacity in the U. S. Army.

Husband Given Chance To Win Wife's Love Back

Judge Hiram H. Keller Suspends Sentence on Frank Briegel, But He Pays Costs

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 6 — A chance to win back the love of his wife who had him arrested for giving her a black eye and punching her July 12, was given Frank G. Briegel, Jr., 25, Langhorne.

The mother of two small children, three years old and nine months old, Mrs. Ruth Briegel, 22, Parkland, the prosecutrix, said she had her husband arrested twice before for beating her up. She blamed the trouble on too much drinking.

President Judge Keller suspended sentence on the assault and battery charge but directed that Briegel pay the costs of prosecution and give at least half of his $50 a week take-home pay to his wife and two children. He was placed on probation for one year and warned about drinking and beating his wife.

Mrs. Briegel astonished the Court when she replied that she did not care if her husband was sent to jail. "Have you no respect for the two children you have if their father's reputation is ruined by having him go to jail?" Judge Keller asked her.

Judge Edward G. Biester heard the following cases:

Kenneth Bowen, Morrisville, RD 1, charge of assault and battery preferred by his wife on Aug. 2 withdrawn and the defendant was ordered to pay the costs. It grew out of a marital mix-up between two married men and a married woman.

William Godwon, Riegelsville, charged with open lewdness and public indecency, was committed to the Norristown State Hospital to

P. R. R. To Drop 2 Trains Here After Sept. 27th

East Bound Train at 12:47 and West Bound Train at 12:19 to Be Discontinued

Bristol which for some time has only been a "whistle stop" on the Pennsylvania Railroad, with the passing of daylight saving time, will become only a "toot" stop.

There will, after Sept. 27th, be a period of six hours during the day-time between trains from Bristol to Philadelphia; and 6½ hours between trains from Bristol to Trenton, N. J.

The two trains are to be discontinued entirely, according to announcement made today by officials of the P.R.R.

The west-bound train (to Philadelphia) which is being discontinued is the one which stops here at 12:19 daylight saving time. The east-bound train to Trenton to be taken off is the one halting now at Bristol at 12:47, daylight saving time.

There will be no west-bound trains stopping at Bristol from 10:14 a. m. until 4:19 p. m.; and no east-bound trains between 9:05 a. m. and 3:38 p. m.

These two trains are to be completely withdrawn with the change to standard time on the early morning of Sunday, Sept. 28th, it is stated.

The reason advanced by railroad officials for withdrawing these trains (one from Trenton to Phila., the other from Philadelphia to New York) is "insufficient patronage and continued high cost of train operation."

New Organ To Be Gift Of Mr. and Mrs. Spring

The electronic bells which are amplified through the tower, will be connected with the two-manual organ.

This electronic instrument will replace a pipe organ.

LATEST NEWS BULLETINS

Joseph Francese, manager of the cafeteria of Rohm & Haas Co., was arrested last night on a charge of embezzlement, according to Edward Lynn, Justice of the Peace. The charge was preferred by H. Michael Albers, treasurer of the Slater System.

Francese was served the warrant for his arrest by Ernest Nuskey, Bristol Township Police, about 11 p. m. at the Rohm & Haas Co. plant where Francese was at work. The hearing was to be held this morning at the office of Justice Lynn.

C., early this morning and survivors are being picked up by a Norwegian ship. The Foundation Star, under Panamanian registry, left Philadelphia and made its last radio report at 6:30 A. M. E.D.T. Thursday. No information was available immediately on the number of persons aboard the tanker or on the number of survivors.

Powder Mill Explosion Damage Is $40,000

Seranton—Damage estimated at $40,000 resulted when Corning Mill of DuPont Powder Company in Moosic blew up last night. No one was injured but blast was felt ten miles from scene. The cause of the explosion is undetermined.

Beat Off Fierce Attack

Seoul—U. S. Twenty-Fifth Division troops beat off one fierce attack by Chinese Communist troops on the east Korean front this morning but at nightfall the Reds regrouped and attacked again. In the morning clash which raged for three hours around an Allied outpost known as Sandbag Hill near Heartbreak Ridge, bloody hand to hand fighting took place in some sectors.

Court Warns Driver; Says He is Example Of A Hot-Rodder

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 6—A warning was given Morton L. Dyer, Jr., 23, Newportville, by Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite that he was an example of hot-rodgers in Bucks County and the Court intends to get rid of them. Dyer pleaded guilty to hit and run driving and was sentenced to pay a $150 fine and the costs of prosecution.

Chief of Police George H. Rents, Bensalem twp., arrested the defendant May 11 after his car collided with a car driven by Edward J. Wurster, Newportville, and damaged it to the extent of $97.52.

The defendant, who bore an excellent reputation and had three character witnesses and had never been in any serious trouble except for speeding in 1947, could give no satisfactory explanation for his conduct.

The Wurster car was stopping for a stop-traffic sign when the defendant's car collided with it. The Grand Jury ignored a count of turning off lights to avoid identification, but held him on two other counts, failure to stop at the scene of an accident and submit identity.

"Your story certainly does not satisfy the Court," said Judge Satterthwaite. The defendant had not been drinking before the roadside and does not drink, it was testified. His father is blind and his mother partially blind.

"Only your friends' testimony concerning your good reputation and the fact that you have to support your blind and aged parents prevents you from going to jail," said Judge Satterthwaite who suspended sentence on the second of the two charges which involves failure to submit identity.

Bus-Truck Crash Results In Injury For 25 to 30

BORDENTOWN, N. J., Sept. 6 — A Penna. Greyhound bus today plowed into the rear of a ten-wheel truck on the New Jersey State Turnpike, near here, injuring at least 25 to 30 persons.

The driver was injured seriously but the extent of the injuries of the others could not be learned immediately.

A half dozen ambulances rushed the victims from the scene of the accident, five miles south of Bordentown, to hospitals in Trenton, Mount Holly and Riverside.

Burlington Co. Hospital at Mount Holly said it was overcrowded with victims and could accept no more patients.

Both the bus, a New York-to-Washington express, and the truck which was loaded with onions, were heading south when the accident occurred at 1:20 a. m.

The truck ran off the road and turned over on its side, scattering onions all over the field. The bus, its front stove in an partly detached, veered to the right, and went bouncing into the field.

Most of the passengers were trapped and had to be lifted through emergency exits and through the smashed front of the bus. Fortunately there was no fire.

Parts of the bus front were impacted in the rear of the truck, including the front door which proclaimed in large letters the warning "Watch Your Step."

Final Plans Made For Advanced Fire Course

Final plans for classes in the advanced fire course which will start next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in Newportville Fire Co. station were made at the meeting last evening at Edgely Fire Co. station by representatives of the Edgely Fire Co., and members of fire companies in Eddington and Cornwells Mts., according to Fred K. Hibbs, chief of the Edgely Fire Co.

The advanced fire classes supplement the courses which were given last year according to Hibbs. The course is sponsored by state fire authorities and are expected to be attended by at least 50 area firemen, he said.

CORRECTION

In reporting a meeting of Bristol Twp. school board in a portion of the edition of The Courier yesterday, it was implied that the John Fitch school would not be built. It is the George Taylor school which is not to be built at this time. The error was discovered too late to correct it in the first papers of the press.

NO-HITTERS AND SUCH

A pitcher for a club deep in the American League cellar, who had won only five games this year while losing 15, came up the other day with a faultless performance.
He pitched a no-hit, no-run game,
and he pitched it against the world champion New York Yankees.

The gentleman who did this is Detroit's Virgil Trucks, who toils for the misnamed Tigers. He is 33 years old, which seems to make him a baseball antique and, in the opinion of the young men of the sports department, qualified only for slippers and retirement and a permanent place by the fireside.

This was the over-age Mr.
Trucks' second no-hitter of the season. His initial victims were the Washington Senators, which seems to make his performance more plausible. Thereafter he pitched a two-hitter against the Philadelphia A's, a one-hitter against the Senators, and then he took on the Yankees. Thus, in four of the five games he won, Mr.
Trucks limited the opposition to an aggregate of three hits.

Well, it's been that kind of season.
The Brooklyn Dodgers have drawn their millionth customer on the road, not at Ebbets Field.
As for the Yankees, who have created seeds of it, they don't mind being associated with baseball history—no-hitters, triple plays and such. What obviously does irritate Mr. Casey Stengel, however, is to have his Yankees made the victims of history.

Ah, well, there's only a month to go, and as the resolute Mr.
Trucks showed, anything can happen and it doesn't necessarily have to happen to Brooklyn. And while it is refreshing to see a pitcher for a tail-end club keeping everlastingly at it and refusing to give up, it would be quite as satisfactory to The Bronx if he'd gone away and practice these diamond virtues somewhere else. Preferably against the Cleveland Indians.

Educators urge schools to teach "unbiased" history as a step toward abolishing war. The theory seems to be that if "unbiased" history were taught in American schools, Americans would see nothing wrong with Russian communism.

Noontide Wedding is An Event of Interest Here Today

A wedding of interest was solemnized at 12 o'clock to day noon, when Miss Mary Frances Sasse made her way to the altar of St. Mark's R. C. Church, on the arm of her father, there to become the wife of Mr. Edward E. Whitaker. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Sasse, 629 Pine street; and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whitaker, Marion avenue, Eddington. The officiating priest was the Rev. E. Paul Baird.

Included in the vocal selections of Mrs. John Arena, Radcliffe st., were, "The Rosary," and "Because." Serving at the organ console was Miss Katherine Keating, Linden street.

The maid of honor, Miss Charlotte Krysa, Morrisville, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Vincent Taddel, Jenkintown, and Miss Margaret Fallon, Corson street, were attired in floor-length gowns of nylon tulle over taffeta in a deeper shade. Miss Krysa's was blue green; and those of the bridesmaids were in orchid. The gowns were patterned with shirred necklines, off-shoulder effect; skirts being bouffant style at the sides. The trio wore silver slippers. Their cascade bouquets and the flowers which they wore in their hair were chrysanthemums. The maid of honor selected rust tone; and the other two deep orchid. The three wore pearl necklaces, gifts of the bride.

The gown worn by the bride was of candle-light satin, it featuring lace yoke and cathedral train. The sleeves tapered to points over her hands. Her cloche of nylon, with floral applique of candlelight lace and seed pearls, held a finger-tip veil of nylon tulle. Her slippers were of candlelight satin; and the bridal bouquet was a cascade of white roses with lavender orchid center, and from this were suspended satin streamers. The pearl necklace which completed her costume was the one worn by Mrs. Sasse when the latter was wed.

The men in the bridal party were: Mr. William J. Brady, of the U. S. Navy, stationed at Bainbridge, Md., a cousin of the bride, who served in the capacity of best man; Messrs. Lloyd Whitaker, Eddington, the bridegroom's brother, and Bernard Rief, Bridgewater, who were ushers for the occasion.

A reception is arranged for this afternoon, invitations being issued to 100. The affair will take place in the K. of C. home. When she leaves for a trip to Lake George and Lake Placid, N. Y., and the New England states, Mrs. Whitaker will be attired in a gold gabardine suit, brown velvet accessories, and she will wear a lavender orchid. The two will reside at the Sasse residence.

Choice of Mrs. Sasse for the ceremony was a toast toned gown of lace and crepe, brown velvet accessories; and for Mrs. Whitaker, the bridegroom's mother, a gown of gray lace and crepe, with

"Prayer for Divine Help"
Deign, O God, to rescue me;
O Lord, make haste to help me.
Let them be put to shame and confounded who seek my life.
Let them be turned back in disgrace who desire my ruin.
Let them retire in their shame who say to me, "Aha, aha!"
But may all who seek you exult and be glad in you,
And may those who love your salvation say ever, "God be glorified!"
But I am afflicted and poor!
O God, hasten to me!
You are my help and my deliverer;
O Lord, hold not back.

LEVITTOWN, Sept. 6—Theodore and Steffie Dzwil are new residents at 2 Shade Tree Lane. The surname looks difficult but is easily pronounced just by omitting the D.

The Dzwills have two sons, Stephen, 2, and Paul, three weeks. Besides the four of them, the house is also occupied by two sisters of Mrs. Dzwil, one of them being married. As Mrs. Dzwil puts it, "My married sister is sort of trying out our home to find out if she'd like to have one of her own."

Dzwil is a bookkeeper in the main office of the Levitt corporation here. Before coming here, he and his wife had lived in Greenvale, Long Island, their original home.

At Greenvale Dzwil had his own darkroom so that he could work at his hobby of photography. Of course, he hasn't been here long enough yet to get involved in his hobby again. He has also been interested in carpentry, making certain items for his older son.

Mrs. Dzwil sells Christmas cards in her spare time and reports that she's about to wage a campaign. It is getting close to greeting card time again, and she wants to get orders taken before others beat her to it.

Noontide Wedding is An Event of Interest Here Today

A wedding of interest was solemnized at 12 o'clock today noon, when Miss Mary Frances Sasse made her way to the altar of St. Mark's R. C. Church, on the arm of her father, there to become the wife of Mr. Edward E. Whitaker. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Sasse, 629 Pine street; and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whitaker, Marion avenue, Eddington. The officiating priest was the Rev. E. Paul Baird.

Included in the vocal selections of Mrs. John Arena, Radcliffe st., were, "The Rosary," and "Be-cause." Serving at the organ console was Miss Katherine Keating, Linden street.

The maid of honor, Miss Charlotte Krysa, Morrisville, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Vincent Taddel, Jenkintown, and Miss Margaret Fallon, Corson street, were attired in floor-length gowns of nylon tulle over taffeta in a deeper shade. Miss Krysa's was blue green; and those of the bridesmaids were in orchid. The gowns were patterned with shirred necklines, off-shoulder effect; skirts being bouffant style at the sides. The trio wore silver slippers. Their cascade bouquets and the flowers which they wore in their hair were chrysanthemums. The maid of honor selected rust tone; and the other two deep orchid. The three wore pearl necklaces, gifts of the bride.

The gown worn by the bride was of candle-light satin, it featuring lace yoke and cathedral train. The sleeves tapered to points over her hands. Her cloche of nylon, with floral applique of candlelight and seed pearls, held a finger-tip veil of nylon tulle. Her slippers were of candlelight satin; and the bride bouquet was a cascade of white roses with lavender orchid center, and from this were suspended satin streamers. The pearl necklace which completed her costume was the one worn by Mrs. Sasse when the latter was wed.

The men in the bridal party were: Mr. William J. Brady, of the U. S. Navy, stationed at Bainbridge, Md., a cousin of the bride, who served in the capacity of best man; Messrs. Lloyd Whitaker, Eddington, the bridegroom's brother, and Bernard Rief, Bridgewater, who were ushers for the occasion.

A reception is arranged for this afternoon, invitations being issued to 100. The affair will take place in the K. of C. home. When she leaves for a trip to Lake George and Lake Placid, N. Y., and the New England states, Mrs. Whitaker will be attired in a gold gabardine suit, brown velvet accessories, and she will wear a lavender orchid. The two will reside at the Sasse residence.

Choice of Mrs. Sasse for the ceremony was a toast toned gown of lace and crepe, brown velvet accessories; and for Mrs. Whitaker, the bridegroom's mother, a gown of gray lace and crepe, with

"Prayer for Divine Help"
Deign, O God, to rescue me;
O Lord, make haste to help me.
Let them be put to shame and confounded who seek my life.
Let them be turned back in disgrace who desire my ruin.
Let them retire in their shame who say to me, "Aha, aha!"
But may all who seek you exult and be glad in you,
And may those who love your salvation say ever, "God be glorified!"
But I am afflicted and poor!
O God, hasten to me!
You are my help and my deliverer;
O Lord, hold not back.

Fergusonville Wins 1st Game In Race For Championship

Fergusonville won the first of a three-game series to determine the championship of the Lower Bucks County Youth League, blanking the Bristol Boys Club, 2-0, on Memorial field.

Jack Pearl handed the Bristol boys their goose-eggs, allowing two hits. These were made by Katz and Pierro in the first and second innings, respectively.

Bobby Rago started on the hill for Bristol Boys Club but was taken out after pitching to two batters. He complained of a sore arm. He was replaced by Dick Orner who allowed the two runs and four hits.

Fergusonville scored both markers in the third. With one away, H. Steubing doubled and T. Scancellia and Ken Alfred walked to load the bags. J. Rappo grounded out, Steubing scoring. Harry McGuckin pounded a hit to left, scoring Scancellia and when Alfred also tried to score, he was nipped at the plate. Pearl and J. Charlton followed with base hits but died on base.

The second game of the series will be played tomorrow afternoon on Memorial field. Manager George McCay will start Bill Charlton who has 12 wins and one loss for the season.

The local trailer association, of which David Miller is president, has cooperated in providing the Courier with statistics regarding certain parks. They are printed here to show growth and extent.

In the 36 trailers in his park, Miller reports a total population of 85. He is currently expanding his court to handle a total of 75 trailers.

The Liberty Bell Trailer Village, located at Roosevelt boulevard and city line on U. S. Route 1, now has 140 trailers, with a population of 330. This park, which has residents from all 48 states, has grown from 90 trailers in the past year.

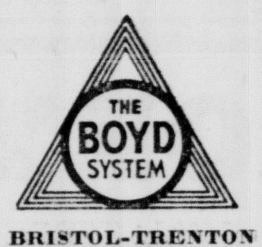

The Joseph Veisz Maple Village Park, Bristol Pike, Falls township, has 11 trailers, with 30 residents. It has grown from an original three. Occupants come from Ohio, Maine, Florida, Tennessee, Indiana, Virginia, South Carolina, New Jersey and New Hampshire.

Also on Bristol Pike, Fallsington, are the Country Lane and Lovett's trailer parks, owned by Spencer Lovett. Here there are 50 persons in 37 trailers. This park, with residents from every state, is only four months old.

Mrs. Catherine Gallagher has 45 trailers in her park along the Lincoln highway, Oxford Valley. The population of 150 comes from every state in the Union. She is currently putting in 30 more trailers for her son, William Gallagher.

The park owners report that they are under considerable pressure from various groups, but they do state that the residents of their courts are "wonderful people."

Fergusonville Wins 1st Game In Race For Championship

Fergusonville won the first of a three-game series to determine the championship of the Lower Bucks County Youth League, blanking the Bristol Boys Club, 2-0, on Memorial field.

Jack Pearl handed the Bristol boys their goose-eggs, allowing two hits. These were made by Katz and Pterro in the first and second innings, respectively.

Bobby Rago started on the hill for Bristol Boys Club but was taken out after pitching to two batters. He complained of a sore arm. He was replaced by Dick Orner who allowed the two runs and four hits.

Fergusonville scored both markers in the third. With one away, H. Steubing doubled and T. Scancellia and Ken Alfred walked to load the bases. J. Rapp grounded out, Steubing scoring. Harry McGuckin pounded a hit to left, scoring Scancellia and when Alfred also tried to score, he was nipped at the plate. Pearl and J. Charlton followed with base hits but died on base.

The second game of the series will be played tomorrow afternoon on Memorial field. Manager George McCay will start Bill Charlton who has 12 wins and one loss for the season.

trailers. One park has about 140; the second, about 73.

The local trailer association, of which David Miller is president, has cooperated in providing the Courier with statistics regarding certain parks. They are printed here to show growth and extent.

In the 36 trailers in his park, Miller reports a total population of 85. He is currently expanding his court to handle a total of 75 trailers.

The Liberty Bell Trailer Village, located at Roosevelt boulevard and city line on U. S. Route 1, now has 140 trailers, with a population of 320. This park, which has residents from all 48 states, has grown from 90 trailers in the past year.

The Joseph Veisz Maple Village Park, Bristol Pike, Falls township, has 11 trailers, with 30 residents. It has grown from an original three. Occupants come from Ohio, Maine, Florida, Tennessee, Indiana, Virginia, South Carolina, New Jersey and New Hampshire.

Also on Bristol Pike, Fallington, are the Country Lane and Lovett's trailer parks, owned by Spencer Lovett. Here there are 50 persons in 37 trailers. This park, with residents from every state, is only four months old.

Mrs. Catherine Gallagher has 45 trailers in her park along the Lincoln highway, Oxford Valley. The population of 150 comes from every state in the Union. She is currently putting in 30 more trailers for her son, William Gallagher.

The park owners report that they are under considerable pressure from various groups, but they do state that the residents of their courts are "wonderful people."

IT WASN'T A FISH, PHIL - BECAUSE THAT PIKE WAS AS BIG AS ANYTHING THAT SWIMS IN THIS LAKE!

DON'T TELL ME THAT WE HAVE A LOCH NESS SERPENT RUNNING RAMPANT HERE!

A GATOR COULD HAVE BITTEN THAT BIG PIKE IN TWO, BUT THERE ARE NO ALLIGATORS UP IN THIS COUNTRY!

SOMEONE COULD HAVE DUMPED A GATOR INTO THE LAKE, THIS SUMMER... THOSE BABIES COULDN'T SURVIVE ONE OF OUR WINTERS!
